

Short bio

Victoria Sanz-Moreno received her first degree in chemistry and a master's degree in biochemistry from the University of Oviedo (Spain), followed by a PhD in chemical sciences from University of Cantabria. From 2005-2010 she did her postdoctoral studies at the ICR (London). In 2008, she received the Applied Biosystems and EACR 40th Anniversary Research Award. In 2011, she started her group with a CRUK Career Development Fellowship at King's College London. In 2015, she was highly commended by CRUK as Communications and Brand Ambassador. In 2017, she was awarded the BSCB Women in Cell Biology Early Career Medal and received a CRUK Senior Fellowship. In 2018, she was badged Werth Trust Fellow and was recruited as Professor of Cancer Cell Biology to Barts Cancer Institute (BCI-QMUL)- receiving a programme grant from Barts Charity. In 2019, Vicky received 2019 "Paper of the Year Award" at BCI and the "Distinguished Alumnus Award" by Colegio Inmaculada. In 2021, Victoria was selected by school students to be part of the phone App "Ruta de las Científicas" Milla del Conocimiento Margarita Salas celebrating the achievements of 9 female scientists.

Website:

<http://www.sanz-moreno-lab.co.uk/>

<https://www.bartscancer.london/staff/professor-victoria-sanz-moreno/>

Follow us on twitter @VickySanzMoreno